

All electrical components are securely concealed within the lockable frame and comply with Australian Standards.

Graphics are held securely in place by a magnetic hinge allowing for quicker and easier visual changes. Even large visuals are easily managed by one person.

This robust lightbox is only 42mm deep, making it suitable to be mounted in various location.

The hinged door frame houses dual locks for added protection against vandals and tampering.